This is the way it was at Gaston in 1974
And these are the cards the dealer dealt.
Look and see how we played the hand.

Dr. Woodrow Sugg, President

A man who understands and listens . . . Committed to education in the most dedicated manner . . . Meeting the unending demands of chief executive with surpassing ability, humor, and good will . . . Tuned in to catch the student point of view . . . Responsive to the needs of the community . . . A man of rare perception and vision . . . Leading us with confidence into a new era of physical and academic expansion.

J. Edward Stowe

We Dedicate:

Creation of a college begins with the citizens and the community. In the forefront of the creators and sustainers of Gaston College is the Chairman of our Board of Trustees, J. Edward Stowe. A humanitarian in the fullest sense of the word, a skillful leader who gives of his abilities beyond measure, possessor of that truest kind of education – the educated heart, Mr. Stowe has been a vital advocate for our constant progress on the campus, in the surrounding counties, and in the offices of the State House.

Cognizant of our limitations of expression in truly describing a man of such outstanding character, we leave off words and take the action to dedicate the 1974 REVELEER to our best friend, Mr. J. Edward Stowe.
